

MP4900™ Alarm Options

All alarms are wall mounted, not door mounted. In the event that a door is opened and the alarm sounds, the siren will blare within the facility, not to the outside. Alarms or key switch boxes are connected to the locking mechanism via a stainless steel armored cable.

AG1 Battery Operated

- Operates off one 9volt battery
- Momentary key switch function (key used to shunt alarm)
- Optional battery saver feature
- Key cannot be removed unless door is locked
- Optional lithium 9volt battery for extended life
- Optional last door out for entry/exit door with exterior key control
- On/Off key switch option
- Mortise cylinder for alarm control (By Others)

9volt Battery

AG2 Direct Power, Single Door

- Hardwired for reliable operation 110v direct power connection
- Twin 110db siren
- GelCel battery battery back-up; Projected life of 5 years
- Momentary key switch function
- Siren mounted within power supply
- Optional remote signalling capability
- LED indicates alarm activation
- Mortise cylinder for alarm control (By Others)
- Includes direct power supply/alarm unit and separate key switch box

Power Supply

GelCel Battery

AG3 Individual Key Switch & Door Module

- To be used with 49DPS-5 door alarm
- Optional LED Indicator to show alarm is activated
- Provides alarm sound and LED indication at remote power supply location when activated
- Optional siren at door
- Mortise cylinder for alarm control (By Others)

#49DPS-5: Separate Power Supply & Alarm For Up To 5 Doors

- Install at central location within store or facility
- Separate LEDs indicate status of each door
- Locks are ordered "AG3"
- Momentary key switch & module installed at each door to reset alarm
- Optional siren at door